Parish Mass Book Page 114, Order of Mass P6, The Creed P12

Perhaps there is comfort for us today as we see that the disciples struggled with prayer too... In the Gospel they ask Jesus to teach them to pray. They have seen how he prayed; how he went to the lonely place to be alone with the Father. In response Jesus teaches them the Our Father, a prayer which longs for the coming of the Kingdom of God here on earth.

While longing for the Kingdom, this prayer also addresses the spiritual and physical concerns of those who pray it and it becomes a model for all prayers. Jesus places a special emphasis on the power of the Holy Spirit. His message to the disciples is that if they ask for the Spirit to help them, they will not be refused. Jesus says that everyone who asks receives; however God answers prayers in three ways... Yes... Not yet... or I have something better in mind.

God knows our deepest desires and he knows what is best for each of us. While we are trying to figure out what that might be, it would be useful to use the disciple's prayer from the Gospel today: 'Lord, teach us to pray.'

Last Thursday 21st July, 200 young people travelled to Lourdes on seven coaches from across the archdiocese to work with assisted pilgrims on the annual Archdiocese of Liverpool pilgrimage. This will be the first time since 2019 that the pilgrimage has taken place due to the pandemic. The young people have been busy fundraising for their journey and preparing for their trip and the work they will be doing including practicing pushing wheelchairs. Underlying the pilgrimage are prayer and spirituality and preparations have seen them praying together and preparing liturgies and prayer services for their time in Lourdes. The young pilgrims will return on Friday 29 July 2022. Please keep them all in your prayers.

Second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Last year Pope Francis decided to institute a Church-wide celebration of a World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. He declared it will be held on the fourth Sunday of July, close to the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus.

Pope Francis Prayer Intention for July

The Pope reminds us that grandparents and the elderly must be celebrated. "Let us remember," he said, "grandparents and the elderly are the bread that nourishes our lives; they are the hidden wisdom of a people." We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility. 'Where there is no honour to the elderly, there is no future for the young.' Pope Francis.

Mercy Associates

The next meeting for the Mercy associates will be on Friday 29th July at 2pm in the Benedict Room at All Saints for prayers, cake, a cuppa and a chat. All are Welcome.

The Sanctuary Lamp at All Saints will be lit week commencing 24th July for the intention of someone who is sick.

Please remember in your prayers: the sick of our community; all those who have died recently including George Bentley, William Carney & Marana Costello and all whose anniversaries occur at this time.
